Airline Regulations	- Limiting your luggage to one carry-on bag may avoid checked baggage fees. All baggage fees are the responsibility of each participant and the participant must have the exact amount for check-in. For more information on airline fees, see the official website for your assigned carrier. - The name and address of the traveler (not a parent or family member) must appear on the outside of all baggage. - You may be required to wear a face covering during your flight.
TSA Guidelines	- All liquids, gels and aerosols carried onto the plane must be three ounces or less and carried in one clear, quart-sized, zip-top, plastic bag. This bag must be removed from the carry-on and placed in a bin for X-ray screening. - Prescription liquid medications, hand sanitizer, and other liquids needed by persons with disabilities and medical conditions are permitted in carry-on baggage. If these items are larger than 3.4 ounces each, they must be separate from both the carry-on and the quart-sized bag and must be declared to the TSA Officer. - For more information on security guidelines, which could change, please visit www.tsa.gov.
Packing Tips	- Pack critical personal items (contact lenses, glasses, medication, cash, an extra face mask, etc.) in your carry-on bag. - Wear comfortable walking shoes and bring rain apparel. - Leave valuables and electronics at home. WorldStrides assumes no responsibility for lost or stolen items.
Reminders	- All participants 18 years of age or older must carry a government issued photo ID such as a driver's license. - Please notify your Program Leader of any and all dietary needs or medical conditions in writing prior to departure.
Behavior	Rules will be established by chaperones and passed on to all trip participants. Any violation of these rules or the Student Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, which includes sending the participant home at the parents' expense. A chaperone is present at each site visited by the participants; however, at selected sites participants may have the freedom to explore on their own. All participants are expected to exhibit responsible behavior at all times.

Please contact Justin Guzman at jguzman@wheatland.112.ca.us or the WorldStrides Customer Service Department at 1-800-468-5899 if you have any questions. We are looking forward to providing a memorable and educational travel experience!
